Globtier Infotech Enters into Partnership with Litmus7 for Global Enterprise Support Services

New Delhi, 26th December 2025 – Globtier Infotech Limited (BSE: GLOBTIER | INE12P601017), a leading provider of customized IT and software solutions specializing in application development and managed IT & SAP support services, is pleased to announce a strategic engagement with Litmus7 to support global client projects across helpdesk operations and SAP technology initiatives.

Key highlights of the partnership include:

- Expansion of Globtier's involvement in global helpdesk operations and IT Service Management (ITSM) for enterprise client environments.
- Strengthening of Globtier's managed services offerings through SAP functional and technical support for large, geographically distributed customers.
- Provision of scalable delivery teams and service execution capabilities to support SAP enhancement, maintenance, and ongoing support requirements.
- An operating model designed to address multi-country delivery needs, multilingual helpdesk requirements, and sustained enterprise support services.

Commenting on the partnership, Mr. Rajiv Shukla, Chairman & Managing Director, Globtier Infotech Limited, said, "The partnership with Litmus7 is aligned with our focus on delivering helpdesk operations, IT Service Management, and SAP functional and technical services through managed support models. By deploying scalable delivery teams and structured service delivery capabilities, we are supporting Litmus7's global client projects across multiple geographies, including requirements for multi-country operations, multilingual helpdesk support, and ongoing SAP enhancement and support services. This partnership strengthens our participation in enterprise technology support programs while ensuring consistent service delivery for global customers."
